Dear Maria,

Daniel was unsuccessful in his application at the two houses in Park St. & therefore I have the box.

Yesterday Mrs T. called to make inquiries respecting the articles for sale at the Weymouth Fair, as she had two on hand to supply. I showed her the notice in the Liberator, which was all I knew.

Mrs T. did not know that it was the opening day. She expected to have heard from you respecting the Fair - Adrian

The visit was short,
and no exciting topics
introduced.

Nothing was said
touching going to Weymouth.
I send the journal
with my thanks for its perusal. If my friend, Mrs French from Braintree comes to the Fair, please to give her a welcome for my sake. I write to let her of it, as she was in the neighborhood.

What do you hear
from Rome?

I shall be much obliged if you will return to me by Phoebe, Mrs Jay's letter which I sent to you some weeks since -

Please to excuse the wrong turning of the paper.
